OAKLAND TEAM MAKES A GOOD SHOWING AT HOME.

The men wearing the Oakland uniform took the short end of the game yesterday afternoon at Golden Gate Park. In the first inning everything looked well for Oakland. A man on second, one on third while the man at the bat put a hot one on the pitcher that should, according to baseball ethics, be good for two runs, but White caught it—threw it to a third, caught the man off base and Oakland lost the brightest chance of the day to score.

The men from across the bay scored twice in the fourth, one in the fifth and two in the sixth. Following is the score:

BOXING AT THE WEST OAKLAND CLUB

ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETE FOR THE EVENTS TOMORROW EVENING.

The West Oakland Club is making arrangements for a very large crowd at its boxing night tomorrow evening. The card which has been arranged should provide some of the fastest bouts seen for quite a while, as all the men are evenly matched and are all in first-class condition.

The first bout, between Jack Dolan, W. O. A. C., and Tom Taylor, E. O. A. C., will no doubt be a red-hot affair, as both are anxious not to lose the $25 side bet attached to this go. The bout between Ed Hart of San Francisco and Kid De Ponto, W. O. A. C., will no doubt be another lively one, as was the last one, when they battled to a draw.

The next on the program brings out two men who will make it interesting for each other, as both have a punch in either hand and are always willing to mix it. This will be between Young McConnell, W. O. A. C., and Young Cheynski, Acme Club. The next two bouts being out men who have battled left on bases. San Francisco 5, Oakland 4. Struck out by White 2, by Crist 2. Hit by pitcher—Muller. Double play—Bane to Holly. Holly to Nordyke. Time of game—one hour and minutes. Scores: McConnell, 10; Cheynski, 10; Muller, 10; Bane, 10; White, 10; Crist, 10.

Although Manager Lombardi's men lost yesterday, the Oakland players are not a bit discouraged. For didn't they get three out of seven games played on rivals' bases? And isn't that the best they have done in the history of a season since Oakland held the championship in '97? So reason the local followers of the game.

Again the Eastern men on the team have not become discouraged. Both the climatic conditions out here and the fielders have experienced some difficulty in judging a ball, as they claim that the cleanness of the atmosphere, out here, causes it.

Streib, the first baseman, is well up in his batting average and the way he covers first station does Manager Lombardi's heart good.

Gorton as catcher, blunts the hopes of many a base stealer by the way he gets the Spaulding to second.

The rumor that Pitcher Schmidt was to desert the Oakland team is denied by Schmidt, and he would as fairly. He says he could not throw a club over and intends to remain here and pitch the game of his life.

Schmidt was placed against "Farmers" Waddell in the southern game and showed up strong, winning the opening game.

Oakland is down on the card to play San Francisco this afternoon, and a large crowd of "fanatics" from this city is going to San Francisco to root for Lombardi's men.

On Sunday next the same two teams are to play at Golden Gate Park near Emeryville. The game is to be called at 1:30 p. m. and the prevailing opinion is that the men who Lombardi stands sponsor for will win.

This is the first chance that the Oakland people have had to see their team perform in a Sunday game and a large crowd of people will be on hand to see the game.

The line-up has not yet been announced.

The men from across the bay scored twice in the fourth, one in the fifth and two in the sixth. Following is the score:

San Francisco 5, Oakland 4. Struck out by White 2, by Crist 2. Hit by pitcher—Muller. Double play—Bane to Holly. Holly to Nordyke. Time of game—one hour and minutes. Scores: McConnell, 10; Cheynski, 10; Muller, 10; Bane, 10; White, 10; Crist, 10.

For a ring battle to decide the heavy-weight championship of the world. This was done after having had both Delaney and Jeffries on the wire for a brief talk, says the Chronicle.

When the Fitzsimmons-Jeffries fight was first projected Corbett wrote that he intended challenging the winner, and as California seemed to be the probable battle ground he arranged his affairs so that he might be at the ring-side. Not wishing to hinder negotiations in any way for the first named match, Harry Corbett held Jim's deft in reserve.

When all chance of blighting Jeff and Fitz together seemed out of the question the former champion wired his brother to find out if Jeffries would meet him in San Francisco in September. Jeffries' reply was terse, and in substance said that he had never received a challenge, but that he was ready to meet anybody in the world. Delaney was communicated with, and he appeared pleased at the willingness to fight expressed by Corbett. Thus there seems to be no bar to an early meeting for consideration of the articles of agreement.

Corbett is due to arrive in San Francisco on April 24, but he may pay in an appearance earlier. Jeffries will be here at the same time. On paper the proposed match is the only logical one for the heavy-weight championship. Fitzsimmons has flunked plainly, Sharkey is not considered a likely candidate by the public, and the other big fellows lack all class which would entitle them to a chance for premier honors. Corbett has always been known as the greatest and cleverest big man who ever donned the gloves. His wonderful stand against Jeffries for twenty rounds in 1900 only to succumb in the twenty-third round, was the talk of the pugilistic world. With the three months of careful preparation he intends to put in he will equal, if not surpass, his candidate for the world's highest pugilistic honors.

WHIST TOURNAMENT A DECIDED SUCCESS

The ladies of St. Anthony's Church last evening gave a well attended whist tournament at Masonic Temple. They had carefully planned the affair and as a result every table was full during the evening and there were few who were unable to secure seats for the game. Fully four hundred persons were present, and one of the most interesting features, aside from the games, was the rendition of an informal musical program at intervals during the evening. A number of young ladies recorded the points for the winners in the pretty score cards. The prizes were displayed on a raised platform at one end of the hall.

The entertainment was a success financially as well as socially.

FRATERNAL NEWS OF THE WEEK.

EVENTS OF INTEREST RECORDED IN THE LOCAL LODGES.

BOHEMIANS OF AMERICA.

The reception to be tendered to Chief Dr. H. L. Mohrman, Monday evening, April 15, promises to be one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the Bohemians of America. The committee in charge of the affair has about completed all arrangements, and all that remains to be done is for the members intending to attend to notify the committee of their intention to attend, so that all may be amply provided for, as plates will be ordered only for those members who notify the committee by this evening.

Any member who has failed to receive a notice containing a reply postal, should immediately notify the committee and Financial Host Chas. J. Harrington. Many of the members of San Francisco Bohemian No. 1 will be present. An elaborate menu will be spread and an excellent program will be rendered.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Oakland Lodge of Good Templars has extended an invitation to the Right Worthy Grand Secretary of the World to install the officers the first Monday in May and a grand time is expected.

A new lodge will be instituted in West Oakland soon and will materially increase the usefulness of the Order in this city. A long list of charter members have been obtained. The officers will be: Alcatraz Juvenile Temple last Monday afternoon gave an interesting program. Miss Cahill opened the exercises with a cornet solo. The quartet gave a vocal selection. Ruby Allen and Carrie King a vocal duet, and George Madison and Laurence Marquand recited a joke each. Etha Gorton gave a piano solo and the exercises were closed with a vocal solo by Miss Cahill.

ODD FELLOWS.

The third degree was conferred upon two brothers by Harbor Lodge No. 255, O. O. F., at a regular weekly meeting Wednesday, April 16th. Several visiting brothers were present, among them being Past Grand W. L. Garner, who is to make Oakland his stopping place.

A. O. U. W.

The regular weekly meeting of Pacific Lodge takes place this evening at A. O. U. W. Hall, 1189 Broadway. There will be a meeting of the Drill Team also. The large audience that assembled at Masonic Hall to pay their respects to Supreme Master Harwick were somewhat disappointed when they were informed that on account of some delay on the way his train would not reach Oakland until Tuesday morning. But the program as arranged was carried out and all enjoyed the evening very much.

Standing the disappointment, Grand Recorder Spencer promised the Committee that he would endeavor to arrange a plate so that the Supreme Master would be in this city previous to his departure and it is more than likely that he will be here on the evening of the 24th and will hold an open reception to the members of the Pacific Lodge at A. O. U. W. Hall, 1189 Broadway. The date of his visit will be announced by the Committee as soon as it is decided on. He was given a reception last evening by the San Francisco lodges at Metropolitan Hall.

As usual Alameda county fared very well at the last session of the Grand Lodge the officers of grand foreman, grand overseer, grand medical examiner, and one member of the Finance Committee being given to this city.

There is some talk of having the session of 1904 held in Hayward, the home of Grand Foreman J. D. Brown, who at that time will be filling the chair of the grand master, while C. E. Dunton who is now grand overseer, will be probably the grand master elect.

MODERN WOODMEN OF A.

Last Thursday evening the members of Golden Gate Camp No. 7236, M. W. of A., held a very interesting meeting in their hall, corner Eleventh and Clay streets. The next district deputy, W. E. Cummings, was present and gave a very interesting and enthusiastic address on Woodcraft.

Deputy Cummings is a rustic, and Golden Gate Camp anticipates great results from his work.

It is hoped that a large attendance of the members will be present tonight, as besides District Deputy Cummings, State Deputy D. I. Thornton is expected to be present and address the camp and assist in booming the order in this district.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS.

Piedmont Parlor No. 7, N. D. G. W., will give a social next Friday evening, April 18, at Elks' Hall. The committee promises a pleasant time to all who attend. Light refreshments will be served.

PRIDE OF THE FOREST.

Pride of the Forest Circle No. 122, C. O. F., held their meeting last Thursday evening with a large attendance. Past Chief Companion Mrs. E. Smith was presented with a jewel by Supreme Sub-Chief Mrs. Boehm of San Francisco. After the meeting coffee and cake was served.

THE MACCABEES.

The smoker that was to have been given by Oakland Tent, No. 17 last Monday evening was postponed until next Monday evening. This was due to the sudden death of Sir Knight S. A. Fitch, a member of the tent. A secret organization, and is non-sectarian, and visitors, either women or men, are welcome to attend all of its meetings.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

Appomattox Relief Corps No. 5, will give a musical and literary program and dances in honor of the nineteenth anniversary of the Post. The proceeds of the entertainment are to be used to assist the old soldiers of the G. A. R. The members are desirous of having as many present as possible in order to assist in the good cause.

The program, under the supervision of Mrs. M. E. Harris, will be first class, the music for dancing will be furnished by Mrs. Sam Adams and George Sanders. Refreshments will be served.

REBEKAH LODGE.

Golden Link Rebekah Lodge No. 105 held its regular weekly session last Wednesday evening at Masonic Hall in Fruitvale.

There was an initiation of three candidates, after which a banquet was served. There was quite a large delegation of visitors present, representatives of other lodges. On Wednesday evening, April 30th, Golden Link will give a "home social" when they will invite their friends to come and spend a pleasant evening with them. Golden Link meets every Wednesday evening at Masonic Hall, Fruitvale, at which times visitors from other lodges will be welcome.

MOROSCO FOUND GUILTY OF CHARGE

WHEN HE HEARD THE VERDICT HE SANK BACK INTO HIS CHAIR.

F. W. G. Morosco, charged with a felony, was found guilty by a jury in Judge Melvin's court yesterday and he will be sentenced Friday, April 25th.

When he heard the verdict of the jury Morosco partly arose and then fell back into his chair unheeded. Morosco's confederate, Victor Hayden, was sent to San Quentin for fourteen years.

BROWN SAYS HE WAS DRUGGED

J. E. Brown, an employee of the Hotel Merritt, who was arrested for drunkenness Sunday and whose $50 bail was forfeited, claims that he was not intoxicated and tells an unusual story of being drugged by a stranger.

Brown declares that he was taken ill in the night and started out in search of a drugstore to secure medicine. On the way to the drugstore, he declares, he met a stranger, who, after they had exchanged a few remarks, offered him some medicine. He took the liquid, he says, and he next located himself in jail. He will ask the City Council to refund the $50 bail money, which he says was forfeited because his catch stopped and he was not intoxicated and tells an unusual story of being drugged by a stranger.

Galindo Hotel Bar.

is now under the management of Fred Price and Frank Courtenay, who intend to cater to gentlemen patronage. The best of liquors and cigars will be dispensed and it will be conducted as a first class saloon.

LUHRS FOUND TO BE A FORGER

BOGUS LIEUTENANT SENT TO JAIL FOR THREE YEARS.

Henry C. Luhrs, alias Elmer Cole, whose escapades in several States have gained him considerable notoriety, was convicted of forgery at Pueblo, Colo., on April 11 and sent to the Leavenworth Military Prison for three years.

Luhrs was first heard from in Oakland. He posed as a Lieutenant in the army and made love to an Oakland girl whose heart he won. Just before the wedding, however, the girl learned that he was an imposter, and she demanded that he prove his assertions. Instead of proving anything, Luhrs disappeared and later he was arrested in San Francisco for impersonating an army officer. Since then he has been in trouble constantly.

When arrested at Denver on March 20, Luhrs was on parole from the Reformatory at Buena Vista, Colo., whither he had been sent for horse stealing.

In the possession of Luhrs were found a blank check book on the Nevada Bank and the First National Bank of San Francisco, with ink, pads and stencils and some filled out checks, purporting to be signed by "L. Ames, Quartermaster U. S. Army," and drawn on the First National Bank. Checks already passed were recovered from the persons to whom they had been issued. During his trial, Luhrs still maintained that he was an officer in the Army. A War Department official was a witness, however, and proved that Luhrs had no connection with the Army. The evidence that convicted Luhrs was gathered by Secret Service Agent Elmer of San Francisco and Operative Walker of Denver.

A few weeks ago, Luhrs wrote to THE TRIBUNE from the Pueblo jail protesting his innocence of the many crimes charged to him and declaring that he was a victim of a conspiracy of army officials. He told an improbable story of having been hounded by agents of the Government, and gave evidence as the cause of his crimes. What there was in him to be jealous of he did not state.

HAYWARDS AFTER GRAND LODGE.

WORKMEN TO MEET IN ALAMEDA COUNTY AT NEXT SESSION.

HAYWARDS, April 17.—An effort will be made by Haywards Lodge of Workmen during the next two years to have the Grand Lodge of that order meet in this town. At the present time there is every indication that they will be successful. The unanimous election of Grand Overseer P. W. Browning to the next higher office of Grand Foreman at the meeting of the A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge held in San Francisco last week, was a compliment to that officer, as well as to Haywards Lodge, of which he is a member.

The Alameda County delegation succeeded in carrying their point to have the next Grand Lodge held in some town in Alameda County, and as the Grand Master for that year will come from Haywards, the entire delegation was in favor of having the Lodge meet in this place, provided Haywards could properly entertain the delegates.

This has greatly pleased the Workmen of Haywards and every preparation will be made at the proper time to entertain the Lodge delegates in a manner equal to any reception ever given a body of Workmen.

PREBYTERIANS MEET.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian Church was held recently. The reports of the various church orders were read and accepted and the sum of $55 was raised with which to pay for the wiring of the church. The amounts given to boards during the year for missionary and educational work was $176.20 and for all purposes $2,846.30. Twenty-four members were received into the church during the year, making the present membership 152. The following Board of Trustees was elected: President, George Gray; financial secretary, Geo. Mansfield; treasurer, P. E. Allen; Joseph E. Stachado, David T. Stewart.

HIGH SCHOOL REUNION.

Arrangements are now being made by the pupils of the local High School for their annual reunion. The exact date of the event has not been set, but it is thought that it will be given on the 23d of April at Xavier's Hall.

The student body of the school has appointed the following committees to make all necessary arrangements for the occasion: Arrangements—Misses Larsen, Webster, Obermuller, W. Helms, E. Pimentel. Program—Misses Wabath, McCoy and W. Helms. Invitations—W. Helms, E. Pimentel, Misses Meek, Oakes and Moran. Refreshments—Misses Meek and Jessup and H. Eggert.

HAYWARDS REPRESENTED.

Supreme Master Workman A. C. Harewick of Buffalo, New York, paid an official visit to the lodges of Alameda County this week. Haywards was represented at the welcome which was given to the official. The local Workmen turned out in a body and supported Grand Foreman P. W. Browning in a manner worthy of Haywards Lodge.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

John Webster has recently returned to his home in Haywards after several weeks spent in a hospital. He has recovered.

Mrs. James Curry has gone East, where she will visit her daughter, who resides in Enfield, Kansas.

A crowd of young people of this place attended a recent surprise party given in honor of Miss Van Horn of San Leandro.

Mrs. L. H. Brown of Berkeley and Mrs. P. C. Long of San Francisco were visitors recently at the home of Mrs. C. Winton.

SMALLPOX SCARE AT THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

BERKELEY, April 17.—There has been so much discussion and difference of opinion developed relative to vaccination by the recent smallpox scare at the University that fourteen leading physicians have attached their signatures to a circular letter stating that "effective vaccination is the only sure preventive of smallpox and that to its influence thousands of lives have been saved."

The physicians who signed the letter are: Frank Howard Payne, M. D.; Herbert N. Rowell, M. D.; J. S. Eastman, M. D.; Thos. J. Clark, M. D.; F. R. Wood, M. D.; T. C. McCreave, M. D.; Chas. P. Gladding, M. D.; B. P. Wall, M. D.; G. P. Reinhardt, M. D.; Geo. E. Whit, M. D.; E. J. Olson, M. D.; M. D. T. E. Vassault, M. D.; M. M. Rawley, M. D.; G. F. Witter, M. D.

BERKELEY BOYS WILL GO ON TRIP TO ALASKA.

BERKELEY, April 17.—On President Wheeler's recommendation three seniors in the College of Mining in the University of California have been appointed to positions in the party which will be sent to Alaska by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey for the campaign of the coming summer. The appointees are: Claude Irvin Rhodes of Woodland, Frederick Clinton Phule of Eleanor, Illinois, and George E. Lutz of Berkeley.

The main party will leave San Francisco next Monday. The three University seniors, however, have received permission to remain for commencement. They will sail from Seattle May 25, and join the party in Alaska.

The expedition will spend most of the summer along the coast near the mouth of the Copper River. They will be in the field until winter closes operations—probably, that is to say, until November 1.

U. C. GLEE CLUB.

BERKELEY, April 17.—The glee and mandolin clubs of Stanford and the University of California will render a joint concert in the Assembly Hall at Palo Alto Saturday evening after the inter-collegiate games.

WILL GIVE A DANCE.

BERKELEY, April 17.—The Aloha Club will give a dance and entertainment, the College Section, tomorrow evening.

LARGE CROPS AT LIVERMORE.

FARMERS SAY SEASON WILL BE SUCCESS IN EVERY MANNER.

LIVERMORE, April 16.—The hay and grain crop of Livermore Valley is now estimated to be fully up to that of last year, both in quantity and quality. The grape crop from present indications will be fully one-half greater and the almond crop will be double that of last year.

Shipment of hay and grain from this point now average ten cars a day. Hay is being shipped in large quantities to Eastern Nevada, to Chicago, and to points in Texas. There are over 10,000 tons of hay still in the warehouses to be moved before the new crop begins to come in.

MINISTERS MEET.

About twenty-five ministers, members of the Alameda county Presbyterian, met at the Presbyterian Church yesterday in annual convention. After the business meeting had concluded, about fifty members enjoyed a banquet prepared by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church of this place.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

The public school teachers have all returned from the Institute and the schools have been re-opened.

Miss Sadie McFlomey, while returning from school Monday was run into by a reckless bicyclist, knocked down and seriously injured.

Charles Morganti has left for Black Diamond, Washington. His family expects to follow him in a few days.

Frank J. Everett of East Oakland was in town yesterday.

The Livermore Grocery is now shipping large amounts of cream to Oakland and Alameda.

Nearly 1,000,000 dozen eggs were raised in this vicinity during the month of March and sent to the markets of San Francisco and Oakland.

JOHN McDONALD MAY RUN FOR OFFICE.

MAY BE A CANDIDATE FOR MEMBER OF STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

John J. McDonald, chairman of the Democratic County Committee, and a prominent young lawyer of this city, is said to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for a member of the Board of Equalization from this district. Mr. McDonald will leave for Los Angeles in a few days on a business trip. He is a popular young man and has a host of friends in the county.

D. P. HUGHES WILL SOON GIVE A CONCERT.

On the 29th of this month Mr. D. P. Hughes is to give a concert at the Unitarian Church. It is to be a strictly invitational affair, and the participants will be the best vocalists. The program has not been made out as yet, but it is to contain some very choice gems.

CANNERRIES MAY NOT HANDLE PEAS

GROWERS OF THE VEGETABLE AT SAN LEANDRO ARE WORRIED.

SAN LEANDRO, April 17.—The pea season is now fairly opened, but the prospects for that vegetable are not all that could be desired and it is feared that a number of growers may suffer from the determination of the canneries not to handle peas. It is rumored that the California Cannery Association will handle but a few peas this year—even less than last season. The Central California Canneries and Hunt Brothers will not handle any, and there are over 300 acres planted to peas, for which no contracts have been made. If it was possible to ship these early peas East in their green state they would bring enormous prices and it is said that there are plans on foot whereby it may be possible to do so. The Eastern markets would pay the best prices for California early peas as they would be a powerful scene from "Les Miserables" at this time of year.

OIL STOVE EXPLODED.

A serious fire at the home of Dr. Smith was narrowly averted last week. An oil stove caught fire in a mysterious manner and it was found necessary to carry it from the house before the flames could be extinguished. No damage was done by the fire.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

At the last meeting of Council No. 5 of the S. P. R. S. I., the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. M. E. Enos; vice-president, Mrs. Philomena Fosh; secretary, Mrs. Isabel Lutz; treasurer, Mrs. Sam Rogers; master of ceremonies, Mrs. Emma Perry; marshal, Mrs. Mary Olimpia; doorkeeper, Mrs. M. Darlin.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A birthday party was recently given to Mrs. Mary Callistra by a number of friends and relatives. An enjoyable evening was spent. There was dancing and a musical program was rendered. A dinner was served at midnight.

WILL LEAVE SAN LEANDRO.

Henry Asher, who for some time has conducted a retail fruit and vegetable business in this place, will leave within a few days for Los Angeles, where he will engage in the butcher business. He has purchased an interest in a shop in that place.

WILL RESIDE HERE.

Mr. Edwards and family, who recently arrived in San Leandro, from the East have decided to take up their residence in this town. At the present time they are staying at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Try.

NEW MEMBERS INITIATED.

At the last regular meeting of Rose Rebekah Lodge of San Leandro, three new members were initiated into the order. The lodge is rapidly increasing in number as well as popularity.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. McGee, who has been visiting friends in San Leandro, has returned to her home in Stockton.

Dr. E. H. Woolser of Oakland was a recent visitor to San Leandro.

WILL GIVE A CONCERT AT UNITARIAN CHURCH.

Miss Julia Johnson and Horatio Cogswell, assisted by Miss Margaret Davis, pianist, are to give a concert next Tuesday evening at the Unitarian Church.

Miss Johnson is the possessor of a pure soprano voice, a somewhat unusual thing for a dweller on this Coast, as the voices run here more to mezzos and contraltos. Mr. Cogswell's baritone is well known.

The program to be offered is an attractive one, and consists of the following numbers:

PART FIRST.

Piano Solo—Valse in D flat.....Moskowski

Miss Margaret Davis.

(a) Raft Song.....Nevin

(b) Elegy.....Massenet

(c) Sweet is Tipperary.....Fisher

Mr. A. Horatio Cogswell.

(a) Volta la terra fronte alle stelle.....Verdi

(b) Sunshine Song.....Greig

Miss Julia Johnson.

(a) The First Meeting.....Greig

(b) Hinaus.....Godard

(c) Love.....Godard

Mr. Cogswell.

(a) Sweet Blue-Eyed Maid.....MacDowell

(b) Sweetheart Tell Me.....MacDowell

(c) The Mermaid's Song.....Haydn

PART SECOND.

Chopin

Miss Davis.

To the Evening Star (Tanhauser).....Wagner

Mr. Cogswell.

(a) E strano poter il viso non vedes (from Faust).....Mozart

(b) Aria—Al Non credes (La Sonnambula).....Bellini

Miss Johnson.

(a) Since First I Met Thee.....Rubenstein

(b) The Border Ballad.....Coven

Mr. Cogswell.

Duet—Smile and Tears.....Mozart

Miss Johnson and Mr. Cogswell.

MISS BARRY SCORES SUCCESS

LARGE AUDIENCE GREETED THE DRAMATIC READER AT UNITARIAN CHURCH.

The elocutionary recital of Miss Margaret Barry at the Unitarian Church last night was a rare intellectual treat which those who were present will not soon forget. Indeed, the pleasure was so unexpected that the ability to occasion it on the part of the young lady amounted to a revelation. Miss Barry's ambition to appear on the platform is not the whim of a young woman who has excelled her class in school or seminary in reciting, but that of a woman gifted with form, feature and feeling to grace the rostrum. In addition to the girls, Miss Barry is blessed with a grace of carriage and gesture and what is known as a stage presence which jointly present a picture that pleases the eye and enchains the attention of the auditor. Her voice, remarkable as it may appear, is on a plane with the lady's other endowments. It is low and musical when used in the chamber tone, but strong, sonorous and stirring when used in oratorical passages. The use of the voice is dominated by artistic appreciation of the author and consideration, which enables the reader to charm and fascinate the auditor.

The program last night was varied, ranging from Eugene Field's "Little Boy Blue," and an anonymous lullaby to a forceful interpretation of "Cyranob," illustrating the potency of love and a powerful scene from "Les Miserables." Each in its own way was a gem.

It is needless to say that Miss Barry's performance has been highly appreciated to the utmost.

The piano numbers of Miss Gladys Downs were played with a skill and expression which delighted every auditor.

At the Dowe Theater the size of the audience increases each night, such as was to be expected because of the rare excellence of the performance. The story of the piece is not alone interesting, but it is also emphasized by the capable and intelligent acting of Lander Stevens, Penny Gillette, Ervin Binkhall, Lillian Atwood, Maurice Stewart, Elsie Bond Will Waring and, indeed, all the members of the company. The work of the scenic artist is also pronounced and as a consequence, nothing is wanting to make the performance perfectly enjoyable.

The play will run all this week.

RUBLE COMPANY.

Last night the Ruble Theater Company at the Macdonough played to a large and appreciative audience, the piece being "The City of New York."

The tale is a most interesting one and illustrates life among the lowly and vicious as a rule, with the purpose of showing how the pure and good may eventually rise superior to the machinations of enemies and wretchedness of environment. The play was finely staged and excellently acted. The performers are making their friends' night.

The piece tonight will be "Nell Gwynn" or "The King's Favorite."

PECK'S BROADWAY.

It is a cheering sight to see the hundreds of the enjoyment of the audiences at Peck's Broadway Theater. Deep interest is displayed in the moving pictures while the illustrated songs are sung in the strongest manner to those who are sentimentally inclined. The dancing and grotesque comedy work of the male and female performers amply fails to evoke applause and frequent encores.

OAKLAND TAKING FRONT RANK WITH CITIES.

Master Plumbers of the Coast Will Be Entertained Here Next Friday—Will Be Shown the Sights.

A host of fortuitous circumstances attending the awakening of Oakland to the fact that she has features to show which would undoubtedly give her a favorite place among the singularly blessed sections, in the way of natural beauty and commercial facilities on the Pacific Coast.
This year is to witness the Elks' Street Fair, the great Fourth of July celebration, the parade of Unemployed Artisans,
and a number of other events of a public character.

The motive which has impelled these has inspired the Master Plumbers Association of this city to take a hand in showing members of their calling from all over the coast, the marvelous fertility, beauty and resources of this city and vicinity.

On Friday of next week the master
plumbers will be hosts and their inviting brothers from abroad will be guests and will be entertained in a most hearty and enjoyable manner.

The Master Plumbers Association of the Pacific Coast States, which, in turn,
is allied to the national organization of that craft, will assemble in convention in San Francisco Monday next. It will remain in session Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with intervals however, for dining, banqueting and touring around the bay. Friday has been set apart for Oakland and the delegates will come here via the Harbor route and pass the day in this vicinity. They will be divided up in three parties and placed aboard three electric cars, which will make tours to all the beauty spots in this city and Alameda. They will return to the heart of town at the same time and there they will be escorted to an elaborate dinner, which will also be attended by Mayor Barstow and representatives of the Merchants' Exchange and Board of Trade.

Nothing will be left undone to show
the hospitality of Oaklanders and the beauty of Oakland to the visiting friends of the Pacific Coast.

The local committee in charge of this undertaking is Daniel Crowley, chairman, P. P. Tracy of Alameda, W. P.
Hocking of Alameda, J. R. Cruz of Oakland, L. Helms of East Oakland.

C. SCHRIEBER IS VISITING OLD FRIENDS.
C. Schriever, a pioneer furniture dealer of Oakland, who is now a resident of Inverness, is visiting friends in this city for a few days.

LITTLE GIRL INJURED.
While playing with a hatchet at her home at 672 Madison street this morning, 4-year-old Margaret Dolan let the tool fall upon her finger, inflicting a deep gash. The wound was dressed by Steward Borchert at the Receiving Hospital.

SENT TO JAIL.
William Cole was brought from Liver-more this morning to serve sixty days in the County Jail for petty larceny. He stole a pair of trousers from a general merchandise store at Liver-more and was sentenced by Justice of the Peace Taylor.

WANTS ENTIRE ESTATE.
Judge Ellsworth has set next Monday as the date for hearing the petition of Maude P. Van Armaning, widow of the late John Van Armaning, to have the entire estate of the deceased set apart for herself.

PEDDLERS DO NOT HAVE TO PAY LICENSE.

Judge Smith Decides Present Ordinance Is Discriminating.

EVERYBODY MUST BE TREATED ALIKE.

Judge Smith this morning knocked out the peddler's ordinance by the following decision this morning.
The defendant W. B. Arants is charged under Ordinance No. 1,900 with having engaged in the business of peddling in the city of Oakland, on March 23, 1902, without first having obtained a license so to do.

The ordinance in effect provides that the term peddler is intended to mean a bona fide resident of the city of Oakland, and one who has resided within the corporate limits of said city continuously for at least thirty days
prior to his application for a peddler's license. The term non-resident peddler is intended to mean peddlers who do not reside within the limits of said city, but who come to the city daily or occasionally to peddle.
The same ordinance provides that resident peddlers shall pay the sum of five cents per quarter for their license and in all cases non-resident peddlers, licenses shall be double the amount of the resident peddlers' licenses, and for this reason it is claimed by the defendant that said ordinance is invalid because it discriminates between persons residing within the limits of the city of Oakland and those residing without the limits of the city of Oakland both doing a like business within said city and in the same manner.

"Every municipal corporation has the right to license, for the purpose of regulation, all and every kind of business carried on in said city, and to fix the rates of license upon the same and provide for their collection, and it is the duty of the Courts to uphold all ordinances, unless such ordinance be clearly unreasonable or oppressive, or unlawfully discriminating.

"The power to license is part of the police power of the city, and involves the right to discriminate between different trades, and between different methods of conducting the same general character of business or trade, but there must not be any discrimination in favor of residents or against non-residents of a municipality conducting a like business and in the same manner or method.

"The City had the power to impose
a license tax upon persons doing business within the corporate limits of the city and residing therein, different than a license tax imposed upon persons doing a like business and in the same manner in said city but residing without its corporate limits. It would have the power to impose a different license tax upon persons doing the same business in the same manner but residing in different districts of the city, that is, a merchant conducting a business on Broadway would pay one rate of license tax while a merchant conducting a similar business on Washington street and in the same manner
would pay another and different rate of license tax.

"It is only where the ordinance is general and uniform in its operation and makes no discrimination whatever on account of the residence of the persons engaged in the business upon which the license tax is imposed, that the ordinance can be sustained.

"As the ordinance under consideration here permitted a person a resident of the city of Oakland to carry on the business of peddling within the limits of the said city upon more favorable terms or different terms than a non-resident of the said city, it is discriminating and therefore void as far as it relates to peddlers."

EDITOR GARRETT WHAT IS MATTER IS RECOVERING. WITH H. K. JAMES?

POLICE SHOW RELUCTANCE IN HUNTING DOWN HIS ASSAILANTS.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Thomas Garrett, publisher of the Post, who was murderously attacked by thugs and brutally beaten with brass knuckles last Saturday, is progressing
so well that he will be able to get out in a week or so. When he can get about the office he has done the scurdly outrage will be redoubled and prosecuted in a systematic manner.
The police seem to be showing apathy in the matter. What they do is apparently perfunctory. It does not look as if they desired to detect the thugs. Young Dutcher, the ex-convict and ex-prize fighter, is still held on bail, but no new developments have been made other than the obtaining of more positive proof that he directed the assault on Editor Garrett and assisted the thugs to escape.
However, the conduct of the police in this matter has provoked indignation among Garrett's friends and may cause a shake up in the department,
for Mayor Schmitz has taken the affair in hand and insists that the police do their duty.

AN ARTISTIC CUTTER.
Henry Loeffler Now With Keller &
Fitzgerald.
The popular firm of Keller & Fitzgerald, the reliable men's furnishings, shirt-makers and hatters, of 1000 Broadway, northwest corner of Tenth street, have added a tailoring department to their business, and have secured the services of Mr. Henry Loeffler, the well known and popular cutter, who will have full charge of the cutting department of the firm named.
Mr. Loeffler has been identified with some of the largest merchant tailoring establishments on this Coast, and his reputation is such that it places him
among the best cutters in the country.
His many years' experience has given him a reputation second to none in his line. He is widely and favorably known in Oakland, where he has resided for many years past, and he has lost no opportunity to extend his & Fitzgerald are to be congratulated upon being so fortunate as to obtain the services of an artist of Mr. Loeffler's standing, and we predict a successful future for the new department in the tailoring department, as in the other departments, for this favorable business house.

WILL GIVE SOCIAL IN CHURCH PARLORS.
ALAMEDA, April 17.—Tonight the offices of the First Presbyterian Church will be given a social in the church parlors. A social evening will be enjoyed by the church people, refreshments will be served.

DEBATERS WILL HOLD A MEETING TOMORROW.
ALAMEDA, April 17.—Tomorrow afternoon the Alameda High School Debating Society will meet and issue invitations to the debating societies of the State residing in this Coast, and prepare for a convention of the Debating Societies held in San Francisco within a few weeks. The one for which Alameda is negotiating is to take place in December.

For the Dreaded Hot Weather.
If we must reckon with hot summers
we should reckon wisely. Face a condition, not a theory, and prepare for it.
Pongee and China silk are deliciously cool. And they will have a great popularity this summer. It is a pity the former is high in price here.
You can buy the best quality abroad
for half what an inferior quality costs here. And they have a fine, pure white pongee over in Paris for blouse or lingerie that we don't get here at all.
It will be brought out here in several colors this spring. None of them cheap, but all most durable and of good service.—Philadelphia Press.

BACK TALK.
Mr. Spatz—It's not polite to yawn in the presence of company the way you did.
Mrs. Spatz—I know that, but I put my hand up to my mouth and—
Mr. Spatz—That's not sufficient.
You should use something that would completely conceal your mouth.—Philadelphia Press.

GAVE A LECTURE
BEFORE ADELPHIANS.
ALAMEDA, April 17.—Last night, J. M.
Taylor lectured before the Adelphean Club on "Sugar." A large crowd of members were present and declared the lecture to be the most interesting and instructive of the season's series.

DIVORCE CASE IN COURT.

WIVES ARE GIVEN SEPARA-TIONS FROM THEIR RE-CREANT HUSBANDS.
Because her husband has been a habit-ual drunkard for the last ten years, Mrs. Catherine Gardner is suing him for a divorce for intemperance. She claims they were married in 1877, but their happiness was short duration as the husband, Joseph C. Gardner, soon became addicted to the liquor habit. They have two grown children.
Judge Greene this morning referred the case to Court Commissioner Babcock.
There was a number of other divorce cases disposed of by Judge Greene this morning. He awarded a divorce to Joseph Martin from Amelia Martin on the ground of infidelity and granted the husband the custody of the two minor children, Elsie and Lucie. Mrs. Martin went to Alameda San Jose to establish a business some time ago and her acts of impropriety there caused her husband to sue for a legal separation.
Margaret R. Meyers, who sued Charles
A. Meyers for a divorce on the ground of desertion was unsuccessful. Judge Greene deciding that the evidence did not prove the charge. They were married at Potreroville, Cal., in 1882.
Mrs. V. D. Poulsen was granted a divorce from A. R. Poulsen on the ground of desertion. She was also awarded the custody of a minor child and $5 a month alimony.

The Wrong Breed.
"So you won't let me play Hamlet?"
said Stormington Barnes.
"Emphatically, no," answered the manager.
"You have no respect for the character of the great Dane?"
"No,
